

BRUTAL FIGHT.
Two Buffalo Sluggers Maul Each Other for Fifty Dollars.
BUFFALO, Dec. 20.—A prize fight occurred Wednesday night at Tonawanda, N. Y., between Daniel Gallagher, of this city, and William Layton, of Philadelphia, for a purse of $50, the conditions being that Layton was to be knocked out in eight rounds. Time was called at ten o'clock. In the first round Gallagher forced the fighting, but it closed without any damage being done to either. In the third round Gallagher got in a blow on Layton's nose and drew the first blood. In the fifth round honors were easy, Layton getting in a left-hander on Gallagher's face, and receiving a right-hander in return on the jaw. In the sixth round Gallagher made some good fighting, finishing with a heavy blow between Layton's eyes. In the seventh round Gallagher went in for business. They clinched and Layton fell to his knees. They stood up and blows rained in thick and fast, Gallagher receiving a hard blow on his jaw in the wind up. In the eighth and last round Layton acted on the defensive, Gallagher following him up and planting some heavy blows. He closed with Layton and at last knocked him down. Time was then called, and, as Layton was not knocked out, he was awarded the fight with stakes. The crowd was quiet and orderly.

ENTERTAINING CRANKS.
The Amusing Pow-Wow That Is In Progress in Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—A Christian convention opposed to secret societies was held Wednesday morning in Association Hall. The proceedings were opened with the reading of a portion of the scriptures and with prayer. The delegate who engaged in supplication prayed that the people might be delivered from a bondage greater than that of human slavery. He also asked that the "Spirit of God might open the eyes and enlighten the Christians to the great dangers attending secret societies." After the appointment of a committee on nomination of officers, resolutions were adopted denouncing Free Masonry, the Grand Army of the Republic and other organizations.

The Slow Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—The Herald prints the following at the head of its editorial columns: The poor, old, palsied William Henry Smithery, that goes by the name of the Associated Press, did not wake up in time to give its disgruntled patrons in this city an account of the hanging in Dublin yesterday morning of Poole, convicted of the murder of an informer. The case was one second only in interest to the case of O'Donnell. The difference in time between Dublin and Chicago is some six hours, and in its second edition the Herald alone, of all the Chicago newspapers, gave a full account of the occurrence. The Herald has had frequent occasion to congratulate itself that it has no relation, near or remote, with a concern which, when not actively partisan, is ridiculously unenterprising.

Worried About Fenians.
LONDON, Dec. 20.—Many special police remain on guard at London Bridge to prevent the carrying out of threats alleged to have been made by Fenians to blow the structure up with dynamite. In addition to patrols on the bridge itself, a number of special constables in boats row about in the river to prevent the approach of any suspicious craft.

That Tedious Royal Hob-Nobbing.
ROME, Dec. 20.—Crown Prince Frederick William, in receiving a delegation from the German colony in this city, said he hoped his visit to the Pope would benefit every one.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE
The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

SANTA ROSA, California, Feb. 9, 1888.
B. J. KENDALL & Co.,—Gentle—I feel it a duty to others suffering with the piles and falling of the rectum to write to you. I have had the piles and prolapsus of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. I tried everything without relief, but after ten days' use of Kendall's Spavin Cure, I have not seen or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I felt at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of treatments and had it cut open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had disappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendall's Spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. I tried it as a last resort. With gratitude and best wishes for your success, I am faithfully yours,
J. H. GLENK.

Kendall's SPAVIN CURE
On HUMAN Flesh.

VERAY, Ind., Aug. 12th, 1881.
DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co.,—Gentle:—I am one of the circulars received to-day. Please send me some with my imprint, printed on one side only. The Kendall's Spavin Cure is in excellent demand with us, and not only for animals, but for human ailments also. Mr. Jos. Norris, one of the leading farmers in our county, sprained an ankle badly, and knowing the value of the remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he had expected. Cured the sprain in very short order.
Yours respectfully,
C. O. THIERMAN.

Three Particular Points.
Point the First.—BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is not an intoxicating compound. It is a tonic medicine, not a drink. It is a skillfully compounded preparation made to restore strength and health; not a beverage to be sold in bar-rooms and taverns.
Point the Second.—BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is free from everything injurious. The most delicate ladies and the most enfeebled infants may use it with perfect safety and with great advantage. While it is powerful in its remedial agency, it is gentle in its operation, restoring wasted strength and imparting robust health in the most efficient manner.
Point the Third.—BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is made by the Brown Chemical Company of Baltimore, a long established house, whose reputation is well known to the business world and the general community. There is no risk in buying such a medicine. 6
